Capabilities Statement

Blaine & González started off as a freelance translation practice in Waltham, MA in 2010. We completed a single $25 translation for a public school system. Over the past six years, Blaine & González has blossomed into a fully-functioning corporation with a full-time staff and 15 subcontractors who all hold at least a bachelor's degree in their field of expertise.

We specialize in document translations for government entities, public school systems, law firms, universities, individuals, as well as large and small corporations. In addition, we provide impeccable proofreading, editing, and formatting services. All editing and proofing is completed by native speakers who are highly qualified in your document's subject matter.

Differentiators

- At B&G, every single direct mobile phone call and email are returned by a member of the management team within a timely fashion ensuring your project gets completed on time. People helping people directly.
- Our members have deep and concentrated knowledge in the fields of expertise in which they carry out translations.
- Our process is transparent because we keep it simple. We have one project manager who handles the entire workflow globally enabling our translators to line up and complete the projects in their pipeline in the most efficient manner possible while maintaining impeccable quality.
- We believe that community service comes first. Police officers, firefighters, teachers, religious officials, and military— not just here in the USA, but all around the world receive a 25% discount in recognition for the hard work and dedicated service to others.
- The remote nature of our business affords us instantaneous and individualized communication with all clients.
- Being a small business comprised of highly-educated, well-connected, multi-lingual members means that we leverage strong expertise yet are able to charge a lower, more reasonable price.

“Impeccable. Accurate. On Time. Always.”
